

Merchandise Vendor Terms and Conditions BBD Vendor Application

I understand and agree to the terms and that booth spaces will be assigned on a first come first served basis by the Vendor Chairperson of Buffalo Bill Days Inc. after receipt of required information and payment in full of all fees. Buffalo Bill Days has the right to limit like items or items not complimentary to the family oriented local content, and handcrafted type of items we prefer. You are limited to sell only items of the type listed on your application. We reserve the right to reject any vendor and/or expel any vendor from the show without refund whose booth contains items not represented by their application. All vendors will be screened for the products and Golden Buffalo Bill Days Inc. Vendor Chairperson reserves the right to reject any application. No vendor may resell their booth or share their booth without written permission of Buffalo Bill Days Inc. No vendor may increase size of their assigned space by easels or displays, or anything else put in fire lanes outside of their booth. Aisles are to be kept clear for safety reasons. No refunds after booth assignments are made. The event goes on rain or shine. Refunds made only if booth space is sold to another vendor and paid for prior to event.

Further, I agree to hold harmless Buffalo Bill Days Inc., its Board of Directors, its volunteers, the City of Golden and its employees from any and all liability for damage, theft or injury of any kind or nature to any person, any staff person, any personal property, equipment or vehicles of any type or nature brought or used by me in my conjunction with my participation in Buffalo Bill Days.
